"MY LIVINGSTONE"

O'Livingstone my Livingstone!
Thy dear old name we sing,
While memories cluster thick and fast,
And closer to us cling.
Beneath thy maples and thy oaks
The zephyred breezes blow,
Just as they will in years to come
No matter where we go.

O'Livingstone my Livingstone!
When thou art old with age,
Perhaps thou, too, shalt hold a place
That's bright on mem'ry's page,
And in the sky no cloud shall be
Instead, thy sun shall gleam
Prosperity shall live always
Amid its golden gleam.

O'Livingstone my Livingstone!
The students come and go,
The moments fly, the years go by
With all their weal and woe,
Along with fleet and nimble feet
Oh, hasten on the way,
And fling the light of wisdom out
Across the Wand'rer's way.

O'Livingstone my Livingstone!
Upon thy campus wide,
In numbers many students roam,
Some from the other side;
And still they love;
We can but hope
That they maye'er be true
To both thy names and colors too
The modest black and blue.

Fonville-Richardson

From the President, Dr. Jenkins

Greetings!

As the twelfth President of Livingstone College, I am pleased to welcome you to this historic place of learning.

Since we opened our doors in 1879, Livingstone has provided generations of students like you with opportunities to develop themselves academically, intellectually, and spiritually to their fullest potential. One hundred twenty-seven years later, as we continue to advance this great legacy, we have great expectations of you. To help you navigate your Livingstone experience successfully, we have introduced some exciting new initiatives.

This is my challenge to you: Once you step foot on this campus "beneath the maples and oaks," focus your energies, time, and commitment on your intellectual, moral, physical, and spiritual development. Take advantage of every opportunity we provide to build your future. Go to your classes on time and go prepared to engage yourself in an intellectual pursuit.

Exercise your civic responsibility as a member of the Livingstone learning community – register to vote. Participate in elections on campus and in the community. Preserve the legacy you inherit as a new Livingstonian – meaning several things, among others: Respect your Livingstone home here as your own home. Respect yourself and your fellow students; respect your faculty and staff; and connect to your new environment, including the city of Salisbury, in a positive, constructive spirit.

We trust you will do your utmost to actualize your dream of an excellent education and seize the opportunity we offer for building a truly successful life for yourself.

Your journey to achievement and success begins here, begins now, and begins with you. May God always bless you, keeping you safe, focused, and prepared for the years ahead!

Sincerely,
Jimmy R. Jenkins, Sr., Ph.D.
President

Dr. Jimmy R. Jenkins, Sr.

On February 8, 2006, the Livingstone College Board of Trustees named Dr. Jimmy R. Jenkins, Sr. the school's 12th President.

Dr. Jenkins earned a Bachelors degree in Biology from Elizabeth City State University, teaching certification in Biology from Howard University, and a Masters degree and Doctorate degree in Biology Education from Purdue University. He is married to Dr. Faleese Moore-Jenkins, and they have three children: Lisa Lopez, Ginger Cartwright, and Jimmy Jr.

History Of Livingstone College

Livingstone College and Hood Theological Seminary were originally founded as Zion Wesley Institute by a group of A.M.E. Zion ministers for the purpose of training ministers in the Cabarrus County town of Concord, North Carolina in 1879.

After three brief sessions, directed by principals Bishop C. R. Harris and Professor A.S. Richardson, the Institute ultimately closed in Concord. In 1881, Dr. Joseph Charles Price and Bishop J. W. Hood changed their roles as delegates to the Ecumenical Conference and became fund-raisers with the mission to re-establish Zion Wesley Institute.

The Rowan County town of Salisbury, just 20 miles northeast of Concord, gave the Trustees a generous donation of $1,000 and an invitation to relocate the school in Salisbury. They accepted both gifts, and the College re-opened in Salisbury in 1882 with Dr. Price as President. The new site was J. M. Gray's farm called Delta Grove, which consisted of one building and 40 acres of land.

DR. JOSEPH CHARLES PRICE
(1854 - 1893)

Dr. Joseph Charles Price (1854-1893) was the founder and first President of the college. A brilliant scholar, great Gospel Preacher, world-famous orator, and advocate for the common man, Dr. Price sought to educate the whole man; his hands, his head and his heart.

DR. JOSEPH PRICE

During his ten years as President of the college, Dr. Price attracted students, friends and funds through the sheer power of his personality and Christian compassion. His great faith and hope for the future has been epitomized in this famous quotation of

*"I do not care
how dark the night; I believe in the coming of the morning."*

his: "I do not care how dark the night; I believe in the coming of the morning."

Greek Organizations

United in Greekdom!

National Pan-Hellenic Council, Inc.

The National Pan-Hellenic Council

The Black Greek-letter movement commenced in 1906 on a predominantly White college campus so that Black Students could have a meaningful cultural interaction and work together to render service to improve the conditions in their local communities. Over a 16 year period (1906-1922), the eight affiliate NPHC organizations were formed. Each of these organizations were formed. Each of these organizations evolved during a period when Blacks were being denied essential rights and services granted to others. These organization were destined to foster a growth of brotherhood and sisterhood and to serve a conduits by which action plans could be formulated and coordinated to address the problems of racism and sexism.

In 1930, it was reorganized that there was a need to form an umbrella organization that would provide coordination of philosophies and activities. This umbrella group came to be known as the National Pan-Hellenic Council, which was formally organized in May 1930 at Howard University in Washington, D.C. The charter members of the NPHC were: Kappa Alpha Psi & Omega Psi Phi Fraternities; and Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta & Zeta Phi Beta Sigma Fraternities joined and in 1937, Sigma Gamma Rho completed the list of organizations comprising the NPHC. In early 1937, under the laws of the State of Illinois, the organization became known as the National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated.

On November 12, 1996, Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Incorporated became the ninth Greek-letter organization of the National Pan-Hellenic Council.
